Lauren Storeby and Tiffany Helton Entrepreneurs

Join special guests Lauren Storeby and Tiffany Helton, two female hospitality leaders and community advocates dedicated to strengthening food businesses through people-first leadership, real career experience and thoughtful service. These inspirational entrepreneurs will share their journey of starting, owning and scaling their restaurant businesses. What have they learned? What is the biggest wisdom they want to share? With over 25+ years of restaurant ownership combined, their work centers on supporting entrepreneurs, fostering collaboration, and using hospitality as a tool for connection and community growth. Through hands-on leadership and community involvement, Lauren and Tiffany help businesses not only serve great food but build humanized teams and create meaningful experiences that bring people together that leave a lasting impact, all while setting food businesses up for success. No matter the type of business you own, there is something for everyone to learn!
