

Department of Political Science

Freshman Year Registration Cheat Sheet

For your first three semesters concentrate on CORE and Political Science Foundation Classes

University CORE Requirements

- University Seminar (US)
- College Writing (W)
- Quantitative Reasoning (Q)
- Diversity (D)
- Contemporary Issues in Science (CS)
- Inquiry to Natural Science (IN)
- Inquiry to Social Science (IS)
- Inquiry to Humanities (IH)
- Inquiry to Arts (IA)
- Research and Creative Experience (R)

Use your time spent in University CORE classes as an opportunity to explore other areas of interest. This is a good way to see if you would like to double major or add a minor.

Political Science Foundation Classes

- PSCI 201-Scope and Methods of Political Science (Fall Only)
- PSCI 210IS-Introduction to American Government
- PSCI 230D-Introduction to International Relations
- PSCI 240-Introduction to Public Administration (Spring Only)
- PSCI 250-Introduction to Political Theory (Fall Only)

Registration for spring classes: as a freshman, this can easily sneak up on you! Advising and registration for your spring semester classes happens the 3rd week of October. Look out for our emails for more information!

For any questions around registering or advising please reach out to our Departmental Academic Advisor, Cara Sabo, at cara.sabo@montana.edu or to our Student Services Coordinator, Brenna Szott, at brenna.szott@montana.edu or (406) 994-4141. You can also go to our website at www.montana.edu/politicalscience.
